World Book Day

Dear Parent/Carer

This year's World Book Day is fast approaching! With this in mind, I am writing to let you know Sacred Heart's plans for the day on Thursday 3rd March 2022.

World Book Day is all about encouraging and promoting the wonderful activity of reading and we will be celebrating the day in school with a range of different reading/book-based activities.

This year, to help celebrate the day, we would like each child to come to school wearing a homemade hat based on and inspired by the child's favourite book! The children do not need to wear any other costume and should attend school in their normal school uniform. You can be as creative as you wish with your hat designs and children should be prepared to explain their artistic choices to their class! Below, there are pictures from other schools attached for inspiration purposes.

On World Book Day, we would also like your child to bring their favourite story book or non-fiction book in to school. During the day, they will be asked to talk about their book choice to other children. The aim is to promote books and authors in the hope that this encourages children to read more!

Each child will also receive a World Book Day book voucher on the day. The voucher can be taken to a local book seller and swapped for one of the TWELVE (exclusive, new and completely FREE) World Book Day books.

Please find below the World Book Day website if you want to find out more:

A huge thank you in advance for your support for this fun and educational day which both promotes and celebrates the wonderful activity: reading!

Kind regards,
